Homily

The Rite of Marriage

All stand, including the bride and bridegroom, whom the Priest now addresses:

ADDRESS

1

Priest: Dear children of God, you have come to this church so that the Lord may seal your love in the presence of the priest and this community.

Christian marriage is a sacred union which enriches natural love. It binds those who enter it to be faithful to each other for ever; it creates between them a bond that endures for life and cannot be broken; it demands that they love and honour each other, that they accept from God the children he may give them, and bring them up in his love.

To help them in their marriage the husband and wife receive the life-long grace of the sacrament.

Priest: Is this your understanding of marriage?

Both: It is.

Or:

Priest: Dear children of God, you have come to this church so that the Lord may seal your love in the presence of the priest and this community. Christ blesses this love. He has already consecrated you in baptism; now, by a special sacrament, he strengthens you to fulfil the duties of your married life.

N. and N., you are about to celebrate this sacrament. Have you come here of your own free will and choice and without compulsion to marry each other?

Both: We have.

Priest: Will you love and honour each other in marriage all the days of your life?

Both: We will.

Priest: Are you willing to accept with love the children God may send you and bring them up in accordance with the law of Christ and his Church?

Both: We are.

DECLARATION OF CONSENT

The Priest then invites the couple to declare their consent; choose between:

1

Priest: I invite you then to declare before God and his Church your consent to become husband and wife.

Groom: N., do you consent to be my wife?

Bride: I do. Do you, N., consent to be my husband?

Groom: I do. I take you as my wife and I give myself to you as your husband.

Bride: I take you as my husband and I give myself to you as your wife.

They then join hands and say together:

Both: to love each other truly for better, for worse, for richer, for poorer,
in sickness and in health,
till death do us part, (or all the days of your life?)

Priest: What God joins together man must not separate. May the Lord confirm the consent that you have given and enrich you with his blessings.

Or:

2

Priest: I invite you then to declare before God and his Church your consent to become husband and wife.

They join hands:

Groom: I, N., take you, N., as my wife,
for better, for worse,
for richer, for poorer,
in sickness and in health,
till death do us part. (or all the days of your life?)

Bride: I, N., take you, N., as my husband,
for better, for worse,
for richer, for poorer,
in sickness and in health,
till death do us part, (or all the days of your life?)

Priest: What God joins together man must not separate. May the Lord confirm the consent that you have given and enrich you with his blessings.

BLESSING OF RINGS

The Priest says a prayer of blessing:

Priest: Lord, bless N. and N. and consecrate their married life. May these rings be a symbol of their faith in each other, and a reminder of their love.
Through Christ our Lord.

All: Amen.

The bridegroom places the bride's ring on her finger.

Groom: N., wear this ring as a sign of our faithful love.
In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

The bride may place a ring on the bridegroom's finger.

Bride: N., wear this ring as a sign of our faithful love.
In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Optional

The bridegroom may give gold and silver (coins) to the bride saying;

I give you this gold and silver, tokens of all I possess.

Or, the bride and bridegroom may exchange small symbolic gifts saying:

N., I give you this gift, a token of all I possess.

THE CANDLE RITUAL

If you are doing the candle ritual, the bride and groom now light the centre candle together. Sometimes it is followed by the prayer of the newly married couple.

PREFACE

Priest: It is truly right and just, our duty and our salvation, always and everywhere to give you thanks, Lord, holy Father, almighty and eternal God.
For you have forged the covenant of marriage as a sweet yoke of harmony and an unbreakable bond of peace,

so that the chaste and fruitful love of holy Matrimony
By your providence and grace, O Lord, you accomplish the wonder of this twofold design:
that, while the birth of children brings beauty to the world,
their rebirth in Baptism gives increase to the Church,
through Christ our Lord.
Through him, with the Angels and all the Saints,
we sing the hymn of your praise, as without end we acclaim:

All: Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts.
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

THE COMMUNION RITE

The Priest introduces the Lord's Prayer:

Priest: At the Saviour's command and formed by divine teaching, we dare to say:

All: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

NUPTIAL BLESSING

And all pray in silence for a while.

Then the Priest, with hands extended over the bride and bridegroom, continues:

Priest: Let us humbly invoke by our prayers, dear brothers and sisters, God's blessing upon this bride and groom, that in his kindness he may favour with his help those on whom he has bestowed the Sacrament of Matrimony.

All pray in silence for a while. Then the Priest, with hands extended over the bride and bridegroom, continues:

Holy Father, maker of the whole world, who created man and woman in your own image and willed that their union be crowned with your blessing, we humbly beseech you for these your servants,
who are joined today in the Sacrament of Matrimony.

May your abundant blessing, Lord, come down upon this bride, N.,
and upon X., her companion for life,
and may the power of your Holy Spirit set their hearts aflame from on high,
so that, living out together the gift of Matrimony,
they may adorn their family with children and enrich the Church.

In happiness may they praise you, O Lord,
in sorrow may they seek you out;
may they have the joy of your presence to assist them in their toil, and know that you are near to comfort them in their need;
let them pray to you in the holy assembly and bear witness to you in the world,
and after a happy old age,
together with the circle of friends that surrounds them,
may they come to the Kingdom of Heaven.
Through Christ our Lord.

All: Amen,

Priest: The peace of the Lord be with you always.

All: And with your spirit.

Priest: Let us offer each other the sign of peace.

Then the bride and bridegroom and all present offer one another a sign expressing peace, communion and charity.

Priest: May this mingling of the Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ
bring eternal life to us who receive it.

All: Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world,

have mercy on us.
Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us.
Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world,
grant us peace.

Priest: Behold the Lamb of God, behold him who takes away the sins of the world.
Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb.

All: Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

The Communion now follows.

Communion hymns: “hymn title(s)”

POST COMMUNION REFLECTION (OPTIONAL: POEM OR REFLECTIVE PIECE)

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Priest: Let us pray.
All pray silently for a while.

Then the Priest says the Prayer after Communion:

Priest: By the power of this sacrifice, O Lord, accompany with your loving favour what in your providence you have instituted, so as to make of one heart in love those you have already joined in this holy union and replenished with the one Bread and the one Chalice.
Through Christ our Lord.

All: Amen.

THE CONCLUDING RITES

Priest: The Lord be with you.
All: And with your spirit.

SOLEMN BLESSING

Before blessing the people at the end of Mass, the Priest gives the bride and bridegroom a special blessing.

The Priest, with hands extended over the bride and bridegroom, says:

1

Priest: May God the eternal Father keep you of one heart in love for one another, that the peace of Christ may dwell in you and abide always in your home.

All: Amen.

Priest: May you be blessed in your children, have solace in your friends and enjoy true peace with everyone.

All: Amen.

Priest: May you be witnesses in the world to God's charity, so that the afflicted and needy who have known your kindness may one day receive you thankfully into the eternal dwelling of God.

All: Amen.

Priest: And may almighty God bless all of you, who are gathered here, the Father, and the Son, * and the Holy Spirit.
